

Seamless Move Management Service for Your Household Goods

Available Exclusively Through Your RELO® Associate

One of the most essential aspects of your move is household goods transportation. Knowing that your valued possessions will arrive safely and promptly at your new home is of vital importance not only to you, but also to your RELO® member sales associate.

As an added advantage of working with a RELO® associate, you have access to the exclusive RELO Direct® Move Management program. This program offers comprehensive move management services to ensure that this vital aspect of your move is managed with the highest level of efficiency to reduce stress and save you money.

RELO Direct® offers professionally-managed moves focused on achieving complete customer satisfaction. Benefits include:

- Free estimate with every move
- Substantial cost savings due to volume business
- Up to $75,000 full replacement value protection at no cost
- Option to choose from one of seven national van lines
- Priority service dates
- Dedicated move counselor available during all phases of the move

By providing unmatched service through leading national van lines and personalized counseling from RELO Direct® staff, RELO Direct® Move Management helps you navigate this complicated and stressful portion of the relocation process so you can focus on the pleasures of settling in your new home.

To utilize the services of LATTER & BLUM, INC./CJ BROWN Realtor RELO Direct® Move Management, contact us toll-free:

800.428.8294

Note: This program is only available for interstate moves, not in-state moves.

Trust RDI Move Management to handle your move with the same level of quality service and personalized attention given to top corporations.